COSTLY TOBACCO SMOKE.

The Tobacco Barn of George Parmley Destroyed by Fire this Morning.

Buildings and Leaf Valued at Three Thousand Dollars Destroyed.

A blaze in the town of Center, eight miles from this city this morning destroyed property valued at three thousand dollars. The fire was on the farm of George Parmley. Before it burned out a large tobacco shed and several acres of leaf had been reduced to ashes.

The house caught from a stove in the stripping room. Mr. Parmley had been buying tobacco for some time, and had intended to ship part of his leaf to-morrow. Fire had been started in the stripping room a short time before six o'clock so that the rooms might be ready for the packers. About 10 o'clock smoke was seen pouring from the room. A moment later the light partition burst into flames, and before anything could be done the fire was beyond control. Most of the tobacco in the shed was saved but very little could be saved and, as said before, nearly nearly all of the leaf was destroyed. The amount of insurance on the property is unknown, but it is understood that a considerable portion of the loss is covered in town companies.
